Magoffin's Vote May be Thrown Out.

Hon. J. M. Kendall, congressman elect. of Prestonsburg, arrived in Salversville last night, he being notified by Mr. Hopkins, the contestant, that Hopkins would take depositions at that place to-day in the contested congressional election case. Mr. Kendall completed taking depositions here about two weeks ago, with the result of reducing Hopkins' majority nine votes, with a possibility of throwing the county out entirely, as there seems to have been some gross irregularities practiced in comparing the poll-books of this county. The county judge, deputy clerk and deputy sheriff (the clerk and sheriff both being candidates for re-election) compared the poll-books the second day after the election, and issued certificates to successful candidates. About ten days afterward these certificates were destroyed, and two Magistrates went to the county judge's home, about three miles from the county seat, and then and there, without any returns or evidences of election, issued new certificates. These are the ones now in existence. This is a strong Republican agency, and it is quite to Mr. Hopkins' discomfiture for this state of affairs to exist. Mr. Kendall is not disturbed in the least over the matter, and says he will take his seat in the next congress. —Special to Courier-Journal, 18th inst.

Shop-Worn Opinions.

Many of the candidates for state offices are chasing themselves over the country, making speeches and trying to whoop up things generally. Some of them are trying to inject into the state canvass national issues which have nothing whatever to do with the state government. Much of their time is devoted to a discussion of the silver question, and some of these speeches show very plainly that the speaker knows about as much about this subject as a tumblebug does astronomy. What the people want in a state official is honesty and efficiency, and they do not care for his opinion on the silver question, nor would they blame him much if he had no opinion at all on the subject. Nine-tenths of these opinions are second-hand anyhow, and much shop-worn at that. Both the great political parties are badly divided on this question, but when election day rolls around the Republicans will vote their straight ticket to a man, while the Democrats can always be depended on to make some fool break when they should stick together.—Bullitt Pioneer.

How to Cure Rheumatism.

ARAGO, COOS COUNTY, Oregon, Nov. 10, 1898.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm, one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. BULLORD. 50-cent and $1.00 bottles for sale by John H. Ross.

Mary E. Lasse has declined to accept nomination for mayor of Winchester.

Doubly Blessed.

A good old Methodist lady attending service in an Episcopal church, became happy under the preaching of the word, and ejaculated "Glory!" She was admonished to keep quiet by two of the brethren and nodded assent, but soon becoming forgetful responded "Hallelujah." The brethren again called her attention to the annoyance, and told her if she did not keep quiet they would be compelled to remove her. The sermon proceeded, and the old lady becoming very happy and forgetful of her surroundings, shouted out, "Glory to God!" This was too much for the brethren, and they tried to lead her out, but she refused to walk, so they carried her out. On the way she said: "I am honored above my Master, for while he was carried by an ass, I am carried by two."

Needs of Newspaper Men.

What we need in Kentucky, and what every newspaper should work for, is a change in the newspaper laws. While they are gradually growing better there are some that could be greatly improved on, and would be could we only get the right kind of men in power. A candidate will come out for a state office and request the support of the papers over the state, then when elected will commence to work his influence to further some plan of his constituents who did service at the polls or canvassed the district, but seldom gives the publisher who worked so untiringly in getting him into office a passing thought.—Winchester Sun.
